

SELL OUT SUCCESS IN RECORD TIME!

No sooner had a spade touched the ground than award-winning housebuilder Appledore Developments' third and final home at Regency Place was reserved. The fact that Appledore had only just started on the foundations of its latest development, set in the picturesque Kentish market town of Tenterden, is testament to its commitment to building quality homes in prime locations. And it is Appledore's reputation combined with its ability to deliver that has proved yet another success for the company.

But homebuyers that missed out on the opportunity to own one of the stunning Regency Place homes need not fear – Appledore has other developments that are currently available, all of which offer a prime location, high specification and, of course, the trademark quality of build that the company is renowned for.

Yvette Brotherton, Sales & Marketing Director at Appledore Developments Ltd, comments: "We are delighted that Regency Place has proved to be such a success. However, homebuyers disappointed at missing out will be relieved to know that there are stunning homes available at our developments in both Marden in Kent and Rye in East Sussex."

The Old Market in Marden is a picturesque development set in a peaceful cul-de-sac, tucked away in a fabulous village location. With the high street only a short walk away, you will find an array of amenities on your doorstep – it's no wonder that only three, 3 bedroom homes now remain.

Prices at The Old Market are £289,000 for a terrace home and £299,000 for an end of terrace home. For further information contact our selling agents, Radfords, on 01622 833412.

The Old Pottery in Rye includes an office, three stunning apartments, five townhouses and one detached home with a studio. With magnificent views of the River Tillingham, yet just minutes away from all that Rye has to offer, this unique collection of homes is selling out fast and only the 2 bedroom townhouse remains.

The 2 bedroom townhouse is priced at £299,000. For further information please contact our selling agent Calcutt Maclean Standen on 01797 229922.
